EASTERN COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE

Eastern Community Legal Centre (ECLC) has been working with individuals and communities for over 40 years to resolve legal problems, improve laws and legal processes and alleviate socio-economic disadvantage, ECLC's vision is a community that respects and upholds human rights, fairness and justice.

ECLC provides legal services, including information and referral, education, advice and advocacy, primarily to people living in Boroondara, Manningham, Whitehorse, Maroondah, Knox and the Yarra Ranges, as well as some specific services in Monash.

ECLC aims to make legal help available to all those in the community who would otherwise not have access to a lawyer, whilst prioritising services and targeting programs to those who experience acute disadvantage.

POSITION CONTEXT – FAMILY VIOLENCE TEAM

ECLC has been selected by the Australian Government to implement a specialist family violence unit under the Women's Safety Package (announced in September 2015). SAGE provides a unique model for providing intensive legal and family violence support to women with increased vulnerability experiencing, or at risk of, family violence with multiple legal issues.

The SAGE Program integrates a Community Lawyer and a Family Violence Advocate to provide a trauma informed approach to supporting women to engage with their legal options in responding to family violence. SAGE is designed to provide a service that responds to the family violence legal needs of women that face additional barriers to accessing services, specifically:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- CaLD communities
- Women with disabilities
- Women with mental health issues
- Women who are socially or geographically isolated.

SAGE seeks to overcome barriers that can make accessing services more difficult for some women experiencing family violence. Through integration with specialist services SAGE seeks to provide a service that is:

- flexible and responsive to the diverse needs of women
- culturally safe
- accessible.

Service delivery

SAGE uses a co-case management model, providing advocacy and support from a family violence lawyer and a family violence advocate.

Family Violence Community Lawyer - Legal advice and casework:

- family violence and intervention orders
- family law and parenting arrangements
- children's issues
- related legal matters.

Family Violence Advocate - Advocacy and case management:

- safety planning and risk assessment
- emotional and practical support
- referral to specialist services
- co-case management with referring agencies.

Additional supports such as financial counselling, tenancy advocacy, housing support, children's counselling, income support, health and employment can be accessed through SAGE's strong partnerships.

The SAGE Team

The SAGE team comprises of a Program Co-ordinator, Community Lawyer, Family Violence Advocate and Intake and Administration Officer. SAGE also has strong partnerships with services that provide additional specialist support.

The program is based at ECLC's Boronia office, but has identified a number of key agency partners for collaboration through the project and will develop these partnerships through integrated outreach service models.

MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

The SAGE Team is part of ECLC's Major Projects Team, within the Legal Services directorate. The SAGE team works closely with MABELS, a Health Justice Partnership that provides an early intervention response to family violence within the Maternal and Child Health (MCH) context by improving the responses of maternal and child health, legal, family violence and support services in a co-ordinated and integrated manner.

Whilst operating within ECLC's legal practice guidelines, SAGE maintains separate, clear and strategic program guidelines and objectives. All members of the SAGE team must adhere to ECLC's relevant legal professional privilege requirements and related privacy and reporting policies.

Internal supervision and support provided by the Coordinator – Family Violence Team and Manager – Major Projects.
