ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

VLA provides legal aid services to members of the community both in-house and through contracted private lawyers. Our services include duty lawyers at courts, legal representation on individual cases, legal information, legal advice and community legal education.

Our in-house practice is divided into four programs: Criminal Law, Family, Youth & Children's Law, Civil Justice and Access and Equity. It is one of the largest legal practices in Victoria employing 300 plus lawyers in locations across the State. As well as its legal work, VLA conducts research into and makes submissions concerning legal aid and law reform issues.

VLA also has 14 regional offices. Five are situated in metropolitan Melbourne (Broadmeadows, Dandenong, Frankston, Ringwood and Sunshine) and eight in regional Victoria (Ballarat, Bendigo, Geelong, Horsham, Mildura, Morwell, Shepparton and Warrnambool). A sub branch of the Morwell office is located at Bairnsdale. The work mix of each office varies according to the needs and characteristics of the region in which it operates. All regional offices provide a comprehensive range of legal services (in most areas of law), duty lawyer services, casework in most Victorian courts and tribunal and community legal education.

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Each office is supervised by a managing lawyer and administrative services manager. Each sub program in Melbourne is supervised by a program manager and administrative services manager. The managing lawyers, program managers and administrative services managers are responsible for the management of their office or sub program area including leading and developing a team of legal and legal assistant staff.

The role of the legal assistant is to provide administrative support and reception duties (where required) including the intake assessment of client needs to make decisions about appropriate service to be offered. The role will be responsible for the update of the corporate case management system, word processing and scheduling of appointments. The role will be expected to liaise with clients, private practitioners and community groups and provide information about legal aid services. The legal assistant position reports to the administrative services manager.

This position description covers legal assistant and reception staff within the legal practice areas across the organisation. Some of the duties may be more prevalent than others depending on the location of the position.
