

LawRight™

Access | Justice

direct.connect

JUNIOR LAWYER FULL-TIME

LawRight Junior Lawyers work with LawRight services on rotation to support the delivery of pro bono civil legal services.

LawRight services include the Self-Representation Service which assists self-represented litigants to navigate QCAT and the civil trial divisions of the Supreme and District Courts and the Queensland Court of Appeal; the Homeless Persons' Legal Clinic which provides outreach casework services to vulnerable clients and Pro Bono Connect which assesses and refers complex legal matters to solicitors and barristers for pro bono representation.

Duties include: Assist with client and casework management, including supervision of volunteers and students; assess applications to LawRight and undertake supervised casework; assist with training, research, resource development and stakeholder engagement.

Qualifications: Admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland or capable of admission.

Salary range depending on experience $55, 000-61,000 and generous salary sacrifice available, plus 9.5% superannuation and six weeks annual leave pro rata.

For information about the position, please see the attached position description. To apply, send a brief CV and letter expressing interest and capability to perform role to Sue Garlick, Joint Director, LawRight, PO Box 3631, South Brisbane BC QLD 4101 or email sue.garlick@lawright.org.au by 10am Monday 26 February 2018.